

Meknes Internship Sites

Placement	Description
Administration for Meknes Center of Handicrafts	This organization seeks to preserve Morocco's heritage of traditional crafts, and production techniques (wood furniture & sculpture, pottery, tiles, clothing, musical instruments, carpets, architecture, . . .) as well promote the economic value of these skills.
Agency for Social Development	The agency receives and evaluates project proposals from local associations and cooperatives seeking government assistance.
Al Hamdaoui Design Workshop	Focuses on traditional wood painting.
Al-Oush Orphanage
Aml Association for Social Development	This is a women's organization that focuses on women empowerment. Among its activities are teaching women their rights within society and educating them in a variety of fields.
Association for Down Syndrome	The association provides educational services and activities for about 180 people with down syndrome.
Association: Fighting the AIDS Disease	This association carries out AIDS/safe sex awareness campaigns, provides counseling services to those infected, holds clinics in and around Meknes for at risk women to be tested for AIDS and distributes condoms.
Center for Childhood Protection	Center in Meknes designed to protect high-risk children in the community
Champion and Palmares Gyms
Community Youth Center	The center offers a place for youth to gather and activities
Complex for Teaching Traditional Crafts	This facility offers assistance to individual craftsmen, associations and cooperatives working in traditional crafts or industries. Courses are offered at the facility in production techniques as well as logistical and administrative support for starting new associations or cooperatives.
Dar Al-Saha Health Clinic	This is a private health clinic in Meknes that has a number of departments including a maternity ward, a surgery center, and a pediatric section.
Discover Morocco Association	This association's goals are twofold: promoting tourism within Morocco and empowering the average Moroccan through social engagement.
Faculty of Law – Law school at the University of Moulay Ismail

Meknes Internship Sites

Hospital of Mohamed V	This is the largest hospital in Meknes and also serves the entire province of Meknes-Tafilet.
Ismail Bakery
Laboratory for Medical Analysis
Law Practice with Ismaili Moulay Abd Al Hafid	The private office handles civil and criminal cases
Law Practice with Rachid Ayoush	The private office handles civil and criminal cases
Library of the Great Mosque	The library belongs to the Ministry of Culture and runs several outreach programs. Among them, it develops partnerships with local schools that lack proper libraries and loans them books as well as offers learning support to the students.
Meknes Chambers of Commerce	The chamber of commerce conducts research on topics relevant to the business community in Meknes, administers various government initiatives to assist business in Meknes and serves as a link for businesses in Meknes to network with business outside of Meknes and internationally.
Meknes Conservatory	Students from Meknes enroll in the conservatory to learn a wide variety of musical instruments, in addition to general musical knowledge.
Meknes Nursery	This nursery is right outside the old city walls. It is ideal for students to learn a variety of aspects related to the business of growing and selling a range of plants.
Meknes Tennis Club	The private sports club sponsors a tennis school and hosts international tennis tournaments.
Melhoun Association in Meknes	Students are learning the traditional music of Meknes, called Melhoun, with the goal of being able to both perform and assist in music lessons for others.
Misa Press	News agency in Meknes that covers local and national affairs. Student works with journalists in the press office, in addition to doing onsite fieldwork, depending on the project.
Music Recording Studio
Newspaper: "Al-Manar"	The newspaper covers local and national news
Newspaper: "Maghreb El-Muwatana"	The newspaper covers local and national news
Rescue and Seamstress Association	This association's primary purpose is to serve as a group of rescue workers who jump into action if/when an old building collapses in the old city. However it also runs a seamstress operation.

Meknes Internship Sites

Sayes Health Clinic
School of Mohamed VI	Private language school
School of Notre Dame	Private K-12 language school. This is a very old and well established school in Meknes
Smile Association	The association focuses on helping women's issues like illiteracy, job skills and health.
Sweets Shop in Old City
The Association for Women's Empowerment of Tulal	The center serves the women and children of the Tulal district. The center teaches women trade skills like: baking sweets, beauty & hair, computer skills, sewing/stitching and more.
The National Horse Stables	The institution houses a large number of horses and cares for them from a regular standpoint, in addition to providing medical care. It also houses the Equestrian Club which administers riding lessons.
The Workshop for Ceramics	